MAYACAMA G.C.

Mayacama Golf Club in Sonoma, Calif., has the distinction of wine lockers outnumbering golf lockers. Members can dip into their private 48-bottle stashes while relaxing on the terrace, dining in the clubhouse or exploring the club's wine cave and its lavish tasting rooms. Thirty-one vintners such as Harlan, Araujo Estate, Rudd, Marcassin, Cakebread, Joseph Phelps, Kistler and DuMol allocate one barrel of premier wine for members annually. The vintners host thrice-monthly events at their wineries or the club: "Sip 'n' Swing" tournaments, for example, and blind tastings accompanied by chef-prepared food pairings. They're designed to accommodate small groups or gatherings of 150.
